MEALS AND COOKING FACILITIES INFORMATION 2009

Meals can be purchased, or bring your own. Please pay close attention to the Lodging Description sheet where it indicates which buildings allow cooking and which don't. WE MUST FOLLOW THESE RULES. If it says "No Cooking" that is what it means, including outside of your door or building. Anybody without cooking facilities in their lodging will have use of a commercial kitchen (in Convocation Hall) to use Monday through Thursday. RH will be offering supper meals which will make use of the commercial kitchen Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday; so if you plan to use the kitchen please plan your evening meals accordingly. It is still highly recommended that if you bring meals, prepare them ahead so that they just need reheating (Freezing them helps keep your cooler cold longer). It will be a great time saver. The lodging areas with kitchens have minimal cookware, bringing what you need would be recommended.

We have access to at least 3 ice machines for coolers. Some lodging accommodations have refrigerators available, so maybe we won't need to keep as many coolers stocked with ice. Please, do not let children play in ice machines!

SUNDAY and Friday: All meals are on your own.

Bonclarken Breakfast & Lunch Buffet (Upstairs Dining Hall/Convocation Hall): Monday – Thursday.

Bonclarken will be preparing a breakfast buffet and a lunch buffet as long as we have a minimum of 30 sign up for it.

Please indicate number of meals you need in each category. This is an all-you-can-eat buffet, there isn't a specific menu, each lunch will include soup, salad, sandwich and an entrée. Ordered meals must be paid, even if you don't show up!
