

About The Speaker

- Robert L. Waggoner is an evangelist and an educator who speaks about the challenge Christians now face from humanistic philosophies such as secularism, naturalism, materialism, statism, feminism, hedonism, etc.
- Born near Lawton, Oklahoma (1931)
- Baptized by Will W. Slater (1941)

- Graduated from Harding University (BA, 1954), Harding University Graduate School of Religion (MA, 1959), Vanderbilt University (BD, 1965), and Erskine Theological Seminary (DMin, 1999)
- Has served as local evangelist for Churches of Christ in Alabama, Arkansas, Kentucky, New Mexico, Michigan, Tennessee, and Utah
- Taught Bible and Speech at Rochester College (1959 - 1974)
- Served as missionary to Monrovia, Liberia in West Africa (1974 - 1976)
- Taught at Preston Road School of Preaching in Dallas, Texas (1976-1977)
- Since 1985 has given over 75 church seminars about modern humanism and its anti-Christian influence
- Since 1991 has made one or two overseas mission trips annually of 10 days to six weeks duration
- Since 1992 has been teaching at Southern Christian University in Montgomery, Alabama

- Is married, has a son, a married daughter and two grandchildren